

REAL ESTATE.

NEW-YORK, Monday, March 4, 1872.
There were no transactions at the Exchange this morning. James M. Miller adjourned Supreme Court sale of property on Fortieth-st., until April 1. For tomorrow, Tuesday, the announcements are very important. Messrs. Miller, Wilkes & Co. will sell a large number of Boulevard and Central Park lots; also, business property on Exchange-place, Broad and South-sts. Messrs. A. J. Blocker, Son & Co. will offer two superior business corner lots; also, house on Fifty-first and Lexington-ave.

Jere Johnson, Jr., successor of Johnson & Miller, will sell valuable Brooklyn building lots and dock property, located on the Nineteenth Ward. In addition to these sales, a number of foreclosure sales are commenced, of which full details will be given in our next issue.

The sale of Burlington, Iowa, land, in the Hallwood lands in Iowa, during the month of February, 1872, were, on an average price of $12.50 per acre, amounting to $22,040.

The total sales to March 1, 1872, are $161,471.74 acres, at an average price of $13.44-19 per acre, amounting to $2,130.
